

Dr.B. Sudhakar Subramaniam
Senior Consultant – Anaesthesiology

Dr. Sudhakar is a distinguished Anaesthetist with over 13 years of experience. He has been associated with some of the leading healthcare institutions with special interest in anaesthesiology for neuro and oncology surgeries. He strongly believes in a multi-disciplinary approach in the treatment of cancer to deliver quality patient outcomes, management and care.

Education

- Bachelor degree in Medicine and Surgery (MBBS) from Raja Muthiah Medical College and Hospital, Annamalai University, India in 2000.
- Doctor of Medicine (M.D) in Anaesthesiology from Raja Muthiah Medical College and Hospital, Annamalai University, India in 2005.
- Further training in Clinical Anaesthesia from Singapore General Hospital, one of the largest JCI accredited hospitals in the world.

Professional Work

- Adept in the planning and management of Anaesthesia across specialties
- Well experienced in managing anaesthesia for paediatric and adult neuro-surgeries.
- Extensive training in anaesthesia for Neuro surgeries in Intraoperative MRI and CT suites empowered by Brain Lab at the Singapore General Hospital
- Has conducted anaesthesia for numerous adults and children undergoing awake surgeries in the brain.
- Is a faculty for various national and international anaesthesia conferences, Continuing Medical Education programmes, and has organised various training workshops for anaesthesiologists, intensive care specialists and neuro surgeons on different modalities of neuro monitoring available for a surgical patient that help in enhanced patient safety and improve the outcome.
- He also has publications in different peer reviewed Neurology and Clinical Neuroscience journals.

Special Interests

- Neuro - Anaesthesia
- Trans Cranial Doppler
- Awake Craniotomy